PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

This permit was issued on the following terms and conditions and proposed purposes stated herein:

1. Burning shall be permitted under Puget Sound Clean Air Agency and City of Roy guidelines.
2. The City of Roy may revoke this permit at any time. The violations of or failure to comply with all City of Roy and air pollution regulations shall be subject to penalty.
3. This permit shall be effective for the calendar year 2010 regardless of the date of issue.

GENERAL

The only fires allowed within the city limits of Roy are Recreational Fires as defined in RMC 5-1-2. Recreational fires include cooking fires, charcoal barbecues and campfires that occur in designated areas or on private property for cooking, pleasure, warmth, ceremonial, religious or similar purposes. Fires lit in chimineas, fire pits, fire bowls and similar free-standing devices, fall under this category. The following regulations apply:

- s A no cost annual permit must be obtained from the City of Roy during regular business hours.
- w Fires must not exceed three feet in diameter or two feet in height.
- w Recreational fires are prohibited during burn bans.
- w Recreational fires shall be no closer than 25 feet to any structure, except that a recreational fire in a closed container shall be not less than 15 feet from a structure.
- w No fuels except clean natural firewood, charcoal or manufactured fire logs and liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) shall be permitted.
- w A person capable of extinguishing the fire must attend it at all times and the fire must be extinguished prior to leaving it.
- w A fire extinguisher with a rating of 4A or greater or a charged hose with a nozzle attached is required to be readily available.
- w Permission from the landowner, or owner’s designated representative, must be obtained before starting a recreational fire.
- w No permit required for a commercially manufactured Barbeque.

Be a good neighbor. It is always illegal to smoke out your neighbor. If smoke from your fire bothers your neighbors, damages their property or otherwise causes a nuisance, you must immediately put it out.
